

25th Wedding Anniversary Celebration of R.L.Clement

A Rare & Unique Display of Sugar Artistry

World renowned sugar craft designer, R.L.Clement, celebrated his 25th wedding anniversary recently in Sri Lanka. Proving his passion for sugar craft and his unparalleled ability in crafting extrinsic designs, all decorations for the occasion were created out of sugar paste, which included guest invitations, church décor, hotel décor, table top décor and even the head dress for his wife. Every single decoration was made to resemble the celebration theme 'Bells', where a wide array of striking shapes of bells crafted out of sugar paste accompanied the arena.

The Cake Piece – A Decorated Bell

The head dress worn by Mrs. Clement and the lapel flower worn by Mr. Clement were also made out of sugar paste.

Church aisle decorations consisted of bells, flowers and dimly lit lamps which created a magical atmosphere when the couple was walking down the aisle followed by the guests. All the flowers, leaves, and other decorations (except the metal stand and lamps) were created out of sugar paste.

Hotel Decorations

The cake structure towering above 12 feet encompassed 7 tiers decorated with bells of different sizes. More than 5000 sugar flowers and leaves were utilized to decorate the cake along with approximately 300 bells. Pieces of cake served to the guests were also bell shaped to be consistent with the overall theme.
